

7. CAO's Report:

- List of prospective crow hunters for 2006 presented for Council's consideration
- Transportation and Government Services working on costing of Street improvements on Maple, Birch and 4th Street. The final cost has to be sent on for approval. The Town will camera various areas of sewer lines to establish the condition of the system and repairs need to be done.
- Underground drainage has to be upgraded if and when streets are done. Currently there are 12 inch pipes in the ground on Maple and 4th. It was recommended that we go with an 18 inch plastic pipe in the future to deal with any possibility of increased flows.
- New steamer has arrived and been used on culverts this spring. There is a significant improvement in time spent on this task now.
- Development Officer will be in soon to look at the proposed storage building and proceed with renovating.
- The 2006 budget was presented to Council. It represents no increase to municipal taxes for the year. Council reviewed it and set Thursday May 4, 2006 for the Financial Plan Hearing.
