

Council clarified the policy on rental of equipment. People now have other access to rental equipment in the community. All rates should be set at Manitoba Government rates.

Council was presented with the result of water meter reading tenders. Staff will confirm the detail with the tenders and present a recommendation.

Final costs for north end subdivision were presented and the rate for a lot will average $32,100.70. It was agreed that there should be a survey of drainage outside the subdivision to confirm capacities.

There is interest in developing the property across the street from the municipal office. Council confirmed that it would be available for $1.00 for the right proposal.

The CAO confirmed a subdivision to proceed with realignment of Maple Avenue West will be moving forward this month.
