

Hamiota Leader

Leaders in Community Innovation

Friday, August 29th, 2008

Harvest has begun!

Pictured: Len Allan

Summer Is At An End, And So Is The Leader

By: Tom Mollard, CAO

The summer of 2008 is almost a memory. Like many previous years we reflect on what has been and look forward to what will be. Hamiota may be in the category of small town to some but those that live here know that it is anything but. The change of seasons never means that things will be getting quieter.

A quick overview of the season and you realize how busy things really are. It started with the first hosting of the Manitoba High School Rodeo Finals, followed by the baseball regionals and the Bantam Provincials. As always there were a few others who competed at the Provincial Level. Somewhere in between was graduation which is a community event like none other around. The annual Agriculture Society Fair is for some a sign that the end of summer is coming but not before we hosted the largest Manitoba Barrel Racing Finals ever. Add to the mix swimming lessons, weddings, visiting family, holidays and the next thing you know you are talking about school supplies.

In order to help people keep track of these activities and the progress of summer The Councils of the Town & Rural Municipality of Hamiota sponsored the publication of Hamiota Leader. Kelsey Michaudville was retained as the editor and reporter based on a

Continued on page 2...

